

The Building Trades Academy

A partnership between North America's Building Trades Unions and Michigan State University

BEFORE YOU REGISTER

In order to register for this class, prospective participants must provide documentation (letter or e-mail) that they have an established relationship with their state or local Building Trades Council. All Building Trades Apprenticeship Readiness Programs (ARPs) that teach the Multi-Craft Core Curriculum are under the jurisdiction of the state or local Building Trades Council where the ARP is located.

Please attach the letter or embed it in an email to Melanie Davis, mdavis@nabtu.org. If you have questions, please contact Melanie at (202) 756-4693. In the letter (or email), please provide the name(s) of those who plan on attending the training.

To contact your state or local Building Trades Council, go to the NABTU homepage (nabtu.org) and click on the "Official Directory" link on the pull-down menu labeled "About Us". Here you will find a directory of all state and local Building Trades leadership. If you have any questions, please contact NABTU Research Director and MC3 Administrator Dr. Tom Kriger - tkrigger@buildingtrades.org
