

CERTIFIED FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE SPECIALIST

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION

While most employees do not abuse the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), those who do can cause scheduling challenges, lost productivity, and damage to employee morale.

Earn your Family Medical Leave Specialist Certification from Michigan State University, one of the most recognized programs in Human Resources advanced education. You will gain a solid understanding of the FMLA, learn to manage FMLA absences, promote attendance, and ensure compliance.

The FMLA can be confusing. Obtain the most up-to-date information, get your questions answered, and develop strategies for continued improvement.

SPECIFIC LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR PARTICIPANTS

- Learn about new Coronavirus-related requirements under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA), including the Emergency FMLA and the Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act
- Maximize attendance
- Minimize abuse of the FMLA
- Comply with the law and new regulations
- Integrate management of the FMLA, ADA, Workers' Compensation, and your short-term disability programs
- Make an informed, data-driven decision about how best to administer the FMLA in your organization
- Treat medical absences as a strategic imperative

This workshop will include a dedicated website with additional, valuable resources.

Certification is achieved by participating in the class and passing the online examination.
