School of Human Resources and Labor Relations
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

CERTIFIED LABOR RELATIONS LEADER

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Labor and employee relations professionals need specialized knowledge and skills to thrive in a unionized organization. From understanding the objectives of US labor relations to complying with federal and state labor laws, a solid foundation is the key to success.

OVERALL GOAL/OBJECTIVE OF PROGRAM

The CLRL is designed for those in, or moving into, a labor relations leadership position. The program is strategic in nature and includes opportunities to network with labor relations leaders from other organizations.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Module 1:
  - » Leading the Labor Relations Function in Today's Changing Environment
  - » Gaining a Global Perspective
  - » Leadership
- Module 2:
  - » Contract Negotiations
- Module 3:
  - » Labor Law Update
  - » Dispute Resolution
- Module 4:
  - » Personal and Organizational Change
  - » Actional Commuincation for Labor Relations Leaders
- Module 5:
  - » U.S. Labor History and Labor-Management Partnerships
  - » Capstone Project Report Outs

PROGRAM DETAILS

This is an interactive 5-week program meeting via Zoom.

UPCOMING SESSION

- May 18 - June 24, 2027 // Tue & Thu 1:00pm - 5:00pm ET

  * There will be no sessions during the week of Memorial Day

REGISTRATION FEE

$3,850

READY TO BEGIN?

To register or learn more about this program, scan the QR code or visit us online at https://hrlr.msu.edu/clrl

QUESTIONS?

Kristi White, Outreach Program Coordinator
whitekr@msu.edu