

CERTIFIED WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROFESSIONAL

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION

As a workers' compensation professional, you need specialized knowledge and skills in many diverse areas, including law, claims handling, disability management, safety, and medicine. The more versatile and knowledgeable you are as a professional, the more value and opportunity you create for yourself and your organization.

OVERALL GOAL/OBJECTIVE OF PROGRAM

The instructors utilize a very interactive approach and employ an exercise-based teaching style. Throughout the four-day program, the instructors also will be incorporating and discussing the myriad of frequently recurring workers' compensation medical conditions and issues. At times, attendees will break into small groups to work on problems or exercises and to discuss issues. Courses are designed to allow individuals to raise questions and get answers.
