

CERTIFIED WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROFESSIONAL

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

As a workers' compensation professional, you need specialized knowledge and skills in many diverse areas, including law, claims handling, disability management, safety, and medicine. The more versatile and knowledgeable you are as a professional, the more value and opportunity you create for yourself and your organization.

Throughout the eight-session program, instructors will incorporate discussion of diverse and frequently recurring workers' compensation medical conditions and issues. Participants will collaborate in small groups to work on practical, real-world problems and exercises. Sessions are designed to encourage individuals to ask questions related to their role, expanding group discussion and practical application.
